existing-home sales grew 1.8% in May. This is the highest increase in pace the nation has seen in over nine years, with all major regions except the Midwest reporting sales increases. The uptick in demand for sales as supply lags has pushed median sale prices to an all-time high.

Remington Nevada, the commercial developer constructing the Mountain's Edge Marketplace on Blue Diamond and Buffalo, will be breaking ground and moving forward with the project. You will see grading of the construction site in the coming weeks. Remington Nevada and the Master Association have contacted the family of Helen Liu to discuss the temporary memorial located at Cimarron and future plans. It is anticipated that the first phase of the project, a community grocery store, will be complete by Thanksgiving 2016.
